General Health & Safety Policy

Policy Reviewed: November 2018

Next Policy Review Date: November 2019

General Policy.

The Administrators of MOORLAND WALDORF INITIATIVE hereafter referred to as "THE SCHOOL" realise and acknowledge the responsibilities placed on them by the requirements of The Health & Safety at Work etc Act 1974 and have implemented the following policy to comply with the Act. "THE SCHOOL" recognises that the standards defined in this document are a minimum and will be improved upon by consultation and agreement where ever possible.

Organisation

The Chair of Trustees, Linda Parker is responsible for the Health and Safety Policy, ensuring its effectiveness and improving upon the policy as experience or legislation requires.

The Chair of Trustees will be responsible for implementing the policy. She will delegate such specific responsibilities as she considers necessary to the other trustees and teachers. She will ensure that all subsequent changes in legislation and school procedures are brought to the attention of all staff concerned and make known to them her recommendations and intentions.

The Chair of Trustees recognises the need for training and will make sure that ALL employees are trained in their specific tasks before commencing work. Also that they will be trained in any new procedures to keep them up to date with current legislation.

All staff will be responsible to her for implementing the detail of "THE SCHOOL'S" policy of Health & Safety at work and ensuring that ALL staff understand and comply with its requirements.

This Policy along with any others that are deemed necessary will be reviewed on an annual basis or sooner should there be any change in the operations of "THE SCHOOL"
